

My web site links... a cura di Natasha Borg

Selezione personale di siti web per il mondo dell'arte contemporanea, della creatività, del management culturale, dello sviluppo urbano.

Frieze Art magazine: <http://www.frieze.com/magazine.asp>

Frieze magazine is Europe's leading contemporary art and culture publication. Frieze is published eight times a year and includes essays, reviews, columns and listings by the most forward thinking writers. Contains up to date info and interesting articles.

<http://www.aandb.org.uk/>

Organisation which brings together the businesses community and arts organisations to create partnerships. Contains press room and case studies research.

<http://www.artsprofessional.co.uk/>

Magazine for professionals in the arts. Conferences, events & training. Up to date news and job opportunities.

<http://www.artsmanagement.net/>

Arts Management Network is an international information service and network for cultural management and arts administration. Including research documents, conferences and training, news on cultural policy and various articles.

<http://www.vivid.org.uk/index.php>

Resource for artists and curators. Website includes articles, research and calendar of events.

<http://urbact.eu/en/themes/culture/>

Very informative website, including culture, urban environment and regeneration. Up to date newsletters, events and conferences.

<http://www.artnews.info/>

Website dedicated to contemporary art galleries, events and exhibitions in major cities worldwide.

Saatchi Gallery

<http://www.saatchi-gallery.co.uk/>

Including essays, reviews and lots of information about contemporary art and artists.

The Barbican

<http://www.barbican.org.uk/>

British Council

<http://www.britishcouncil.org/home.htm>

Contains links to its many other branches, including its section on culture, culture laboratories and the arts.

Arts Council England - this is the national development agency for the arts in the UK.

<http://www.artscouncil.org.uk/>

Interested projects featured as well as an up to date press & news section.

ARTFORUM www.artforum.com includes a database of art worldwide and a search engine for events by country and region.

Council of Europe - Culture and Heritage section
http://www.coe.int/T/E/Com/About_Coe/Culture.asp